

Flexible Resourcing

Business Process Outsourcing

Talented people are the main drivers behind all successful organisations, although finding the right people for the job can be a difficult, demanding task.

SCC's flexible resourcing helps your business become more agile, providing a faster access to a trusted pool of UK IT professionals. We can provide you with temporary contract staff who complement your existing teams or permanent search and selection services.

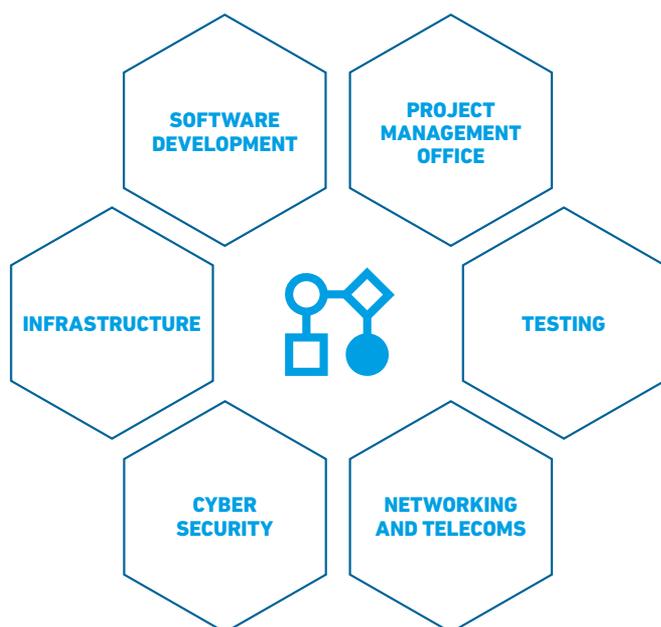

With flexible resourcing, organisations can combine a core group of permanent staff with a highly specialist team who can bring huge benefits to your operations. Through mentorship and training, flexible resourcing helps with much-needed experience and technical knowledge. Similarly, experienced temporary staff can implement transformation strategies that help you achieve your goals, while ensuring costs and other overheads are kept to a minimum.

SCC's Flexible Resourcing

Through our flexible resourcing service, SCC can enhance your internal skills, deploy new technologies, or provide additional manpower to cope with overflow or seasonal demand.

Our flexible resourcing team have more than 40 years' experience in IT recruitment, providing the highest calibre of multi-disciplined resources across private and public-sector clients, ensuring you achieve your strategic aims.

SCC can respond rapidly to urgent short-term resourcing needs with a typical turnaround of between 48 and 72 hours from receiving customer instructions to contracts. We provide you with a clear, known cost, with our resources charged either on a time and materials basis under an agreed schedule of work for a set term, or on a call-off basis to deliver a clear set of outputs that could range from several days to several years.

Why choose SCC as a partner?

SCC's years of recruitment and technology experience sets us apart from all the competition. Our team helps you to recruit the right people at the right time, as and when you need them. As the recruitment division of SCC – Europe's biggest independent IT services business – it's what we do every day. It's our deep understanding of your business, the technical challenges and diverse roles that positions us as the right recruitment partner for you.

We can help you handle the peaks and troughs of demand, whether this be project related, business as usual activity or a general skills gap shortage.

By using our flexible resourcing services, we help you overcome problems by offering a more personalised service that can be tailored to your specific needs; we know that one size does not fit all.
