

Why SCC for RingCentral?

In business, success depends on everyone bringing their best to the table. When two top-tier organisations join forces in this way, their success is more than doubled. Such is the case with SCC and RingCentral, who partnered at the beginning of 2021.

Combining decades of end to end IT experience with a world class communications solution and partner program, SCC and RingCentral have forged their partnership upon layers of collaboration and trust.

SCC are proud to have achieved the Highest Tier of Accreditation as a Diamond

'SCC have been supporting UK Public Sector for almost 50 years and Ring Central very much compliment and augment the broader discussion we are having in terms connecting our customers and driving efficiency, through greater collaboration and increased productivity'

Nigel Clark, Head of Public Sector at SCC

RingCentral is an absolute compliment to our Unified Comms and Contact Centre portfolio offering enterprise grade functionality, along with great customer service and support at very competitive price point'

Dan Jagtiani, Head of UC \(sales\)

We are delighted to be jointly going to market in partnership with SCC having appointed SCC as a strategic partner. SCC has built an outstanding reputation in delivering customer satisfaction with best of breed technologies. Given the RingCentral position as the global #1 Business Communications Platform it is exciting to be partnering together to assist our joint customers to communicate faster, smarter and more effectively than ever before.
